

MARQUETTE UNIVERSITY

Center for Peacemaking

Exploring the Power of Nonviolence

Szycmzak Peacemaking Fellows

Szycmzak Peacemaking Fellowships foster the development of nonviolent peacemakers. Fellowships support individuals as they work to transform structures and relationships to provide for the wellbeing of all.

The Marquette University Center for Peacemaking is offering $200 to $2,000 grants for full-time Marquette undergraduate students to explore the power of nonviolence. Fellows are encouraged to develop a proposal in which they will work independently or with existing peacemaking and/or development NGOs.

Application Deadline: March 1, 2010

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

Applicants must submit five hard copies of the following materials:

1. Application- see www.mu.edu/peacemaking

NOTE: All submitted hard copies must be anonymous to allow for fair judging. Applicants should put their name only on the cover page.

Application material should be sent / delivered to:

Patrick Kennelly
Center for Peacemaking
Academic Support Facility, Rm. 201
Marquette University

- A. Each applicant is encouraged to design her/his own fellowship in some area of active nonviolent peacemaking; preference will be given to self-designed projects. Projects focus may range from interpersonal to international, from technology to the arts.

- B. In addition to the student's self-designed project, the applicant may consider partnering with an organization. Students will need to communicate with the organization in order to develop specific project ideas.
1. Casa Maria Catholic Worker Community [Contact Patrick Kennelly: Casa Maria Catholic Worker, 414-344-5745].
  2. Archdiocese of Milwaukee's Catholic Social Action Contact: Rob Shelledy at: [shelledy@archmil.org; 414-769-3402].
  3. "Voices for Creative Nonviolence" – VCNV is committed to strategic campaigns and experiments in truth engaging in active nonviolent resistance. VCNV organizes and seeks an end to all forms of economic and military warfare. Contact: Voices for Creative Nonviolence; 1249 W Argyle Street #2; Chicago, IL 60640; Phone: (773) 878-3815; [info@vcnv.org]
  4. Contact the Center for Peacemaking for additional organizations.

C. The Center will work with the student to gain academic credit for the Summer Internship, if desired.

D. Money for the internship will be dispersed in two stages. The first 2/3 of the fellowship funds will be distributed before the fellowship begins. The remaining 1/3 of the fellowship monies will be distributed upon completion of all agreements. All fellows will be expected to do the following:

1. Submit documented account of project expenditures.
2. Provide a letter from site verifying satisfactory completion of the internship.
3. Write a short (250 words) reflection within a week of return and submit electronically to the Associate Director.
4. Participate in two reflections session at the Center
5. Present your work to the Marquette University community
6. Maintain an active involvement with the Center for Peacemaking after your internship.

Application Deadline: March 1, 2010

Szymczak Peacemaking Fellows

Summer 2010 Application

Szymczak Peacemaking Fellowships foster the development of nonviolent peacemakers. Fellowships support individuals as they work to transform structures and relationships to provide for the wellbeing of all.

The Marquette University Center for Peacemaking is offering $200 to $2,000 grants for full-time Marquette undergraduate students to explore the power of nonviolence. Fellows are encouraged to develop a proposal in which they will work independently or with existing peacemaking and/or development NGOs.

Application Deadline: March 1, 2010

Name _____
Project Name _____
Graduation Date _____
E-mail _____
Phone _____
Funding amount $ _____

All submitted hard copies must be anonymous to allow for fair judging. Applicants should put their name only on this page. Applications will not be considered in which the identity of the applicant can be determined elsewhere in the application. Please number your application as follows (pg # of #)

1. Proposal for fellowship. (700 words limit)
2. How will this project advance the cause of nonviolent peacemaking? (300 word limit)
3. What skills or experiences will be developed by your project? (200 word limit)
4. How will you share your experiences upon returning to Marquette?
5. Please list the organizations you plan to work with and contact information of the person who agreed to supervise your involvement.
6. Please include a timeline and logistical information of fellowship. (Location, Housing, Dates, etc..)
7. Do you agree to provide a 250-word written reflection within a week of your return, submitted electronically to the associate director of the Center For Peacemaking.
8. Do you agree to participate in two reflection sessions upon returning to Marquette, one immediately upon return, one several months later, to be scheduled by the Center for Peacemaking.
9. Do you agree to provide a letter from site verifying satisfactory completion of the internship?
10. Do you agree to maintain an active involvement with the Center for Peacemaking after your internship?
11. Do you agree to present the work of your fellowship to the Marquette and Milwaukee community? The Center for Peacemaking will set the date for this event.
12. Did you complete and include the budget form?
13. Do you understand money for the internship will be awarded in two stages? The first 2/3 of the fellowship funds will be distributed before your fellowship begins and the remaining 1/3 of the fellowship monies will be distributed upon completion of all agreements.

Budget Form: Szymczak Peacemaking Fellows
Summer, 2010

[Only fill in the items that apply. Include a one to two sentence explanation for each line item.]

Application fees $ _____

RT Transportation to / from Internship _____

Local Transportation at site of Internship _____

Lodging _____

Research (Internet, Books, etc.) _____

Phone costs (for Internship) _____

Meals _____

Entertainment _____

Other: _____

_____ _____

_____ _____

---

---

TOTAL: $ _____