“Philosophy is one fundamental area of study that has found a new role in the high-tech world. In an information-based economy, people who can think conceptually are more and more valuable.” New York Times

FR. JOHN D. JONES

“The Life of the Mind in the Experience of God”

Friday, September 17, 2010

3:30-5:30
Raynor
Conference Center A

Fr. John D Jones is a professor in the Department of Philosophy at Marquette University. His research interests are divided into two main areas: (1) Dionysius the Areopagite, focusing on the interpretations of the Divine Names and Mystical Theology in terms of the Greek Patristic/Eastern Orthodox, Latin Scholastic, and Neoplatonic traditions; (2) Poverty and social marginalization, focusing on philosophical and theological approaches to these issues.

Fr. Jones is a priest of the Orthodox Church in America.