WORK IN PROGRESS
BROWN BAG LUNCHEON

Organized by Margaret Walker and Sebastian Luft

Rationale: We have organized a series of brownbag lunches this fall, which are intended to act as a forum for members of the faculty and graduate student body to present some ideas they are working on and to incite and further discussion within the Philosophy Department. We will also send out announcements at the beginning of each week of a brownbag talk with the title of the presentation. These talks are meant to be casual and informal. We hope to see those who can make it!

Time and Location: Wednesdays, 12-1, in the Department Commons

Program:

- Wednesday, September 12: Dr. Michael Monahan
- Wednesday, September 26: Jennifer Fenton
- Wednesday, October 10: Dr. James South
- Wednesday, October 24: Kimberly Engels
- Wednesday, November 07: Dr. Curtis Carter
- Wednesday, November 28: Catlyn Origitano
