You have philosophical questions? Let’s have a conversation! Come to...

LIFE EXAMINED III:
An Undergraduate Philosophy Conference
April 9, 2011
CU 001

Conference Schedule (All papers written by undergraduate students)

10:00 a.m.: Welcome, by Dr. James South (Chair of the Philosophy Department)

10:05: Jordan Crowe, “Living and Loving Dialogically”

11:15: Marian Pintar, “Dance, Dance Revolution: A Look at Camus through the Lens of Dance”

11:45: Paul Nona, “Smiles, Speeches, Samples, & Sandwiches: An Examination of the Pharmaceutical Industry’s Business Marketing Tactics and Resulting Influence on Physician Prescribing Habits and Ethical Implications Associated”

12:30-1:45: LUNCH BREAK

1:45: Kyle Hill, “Biological Utility: A Natural View of the Greatest Good”

2:30: Alex Heaton, “Epistemological Realism and Science’s Success”