Provost's Initiative
Faculty Mentoring / Faculty Success Program

Application Process

The Provost's Initiative on Faculty Mentoring will provide selected faculty members each year with an opportunity to participate in the "Faculty Success Program," a 12-week intensive mentoring experience offered as an online program by the National Center for Faculty Development & Diversity (NCFDD). The Faculty Success Program is facilitated by a cohort of tenured faculty members and is designed to equip faculty with the skills and strategies necessary to increase research productivity, promote effective time management, and maximize work-life balance.

Additional information about the NCFDD program can be found on their website.

PROGRAM   Summer 2018 Program (May - August)
DATE(S):   Fall Term 2018 Program (September - December)

ELIGIBILITY: All full-time assistant and associate professors are eligible to participate. Women and minority applicants are especially encouraged to apply.

ALLOWABLE: The Office of the Provost will cover the tuition costs for each faculty member
EXPENSES: selected for the program.

DEADLINE: Applications should be sent to Gary Meyer, Senior Vice Provost for Faculty Affairs at: (faculty.affairs@marquette.edu) by March 1, 2018 to participate in either the summer or the fall Faculty Success Program (participant's choice).

PROCEDURES: Interested faculty should submit a brief (no more than one single-spaced page) proposal that includes the following information:

- Name, contact information, and department/college/school affiliation(s)
- Brief statement on why you believe this program would be beneficial for your professional development
- Copy of your C.V.

REPORTING: Following completion of the 12-week program, participants must submit a report to the Provost's Office that includes (but need not be limited to):

- Statement on your overall assessment of the program including specific ways in which you benefited from the program
- Suggestions as to how this program could be improved
- Description of any best practices or ideas identified as a result of this program that should be considered at Marquette