Nonprofits Need Your Leadership, Answer the Call

Exploring Board Service: Get Ready, Get Connected

Wednesday, October 12 — 4:00-5:30 pm
Marquette University

Do you wonder if serving on a nonprofit board or committee is right for you?

This is the place to come for answers. You will learn about the nonprofit sector, nonprofit agencies and do a brief self-evaluation as a basis for making a good board connection. Attendees will select two of four roundtable options, and get information on specific nonprofits seeking board and committee members.

It will cover some basic things to know before investing your time and talent:

- Benefits of board service to you and the community
- Nonprofits and the role they play in our community
- Different types of boards and board structures
- Individual duties and responsibilities
- Key questions to ask the organization and yourself before taking the next steps
