Description:

NurseCamp is a week-end experience created for high school and middle school students who are seriously considering a career in nursing. It provides an opportunity for students to experience dormitory life, gain information about nursing and the many roles of the nurse, and perform basic nursing skills in a laboratory setting.

Nurse Camp 2008 is open to middle school and high school students, grades 8 - 12. Meals and transportation to and from clinical sites will be provided.

Parents are requested to attend the Friday evening sessions beginning at 5:00 pm. Free parking is available at the Marquette University Parking Garage, located on 1240 W. Wells Street. Please inform the attendant that you are a guest of the college.
