Course Title:
Introduction to Theology

Description:

This course will offer an introduction to the Christian theology from a historical perspective. Its objective is to provide students with the necessary skills for an independent and more advanced study of theology.

The course will be divided into three units: the Bible, the First and Second Millennium of Christianity. Besides both the Old and New Testaments, a number of texts from various periods of Christian history will be studied.

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to identify and explain the main theological concepts and appreciate the vitality of Christian theology.
