

UNDERGRADUATE COURSE DESCRIPTION

Term: Fall 2010
Instructor: Michael Harris
Course #: THEO 1001
Section: 102, 110
Course Title: Introduction to Theology

Description:

In this course, the student will be introduced to the key concepts and sources of Christian theology. We will begin by reading and discussing many of the scriptural passages that have been foundational in the expression of both Jewish and Christian theology. After this extensive Scripture reading, we will continue with theological writings from Christian history that illustrate how that expression has continued, and we will consider how Christian theology has related both to the changing setting and to its historical and biblical foundations. Students will be expected to display an ability to interpret theological texts in their own contexts and to articulate contemporary implications of those texts.
