UNDERGRADUATE COURSE DESCRIPTION

Term: Fall 2016
Instructor: Dallas Flippin
Course #: THEO 1001
Section: 119
Course Title: Introduction to Theology
Topic: Foundational Narratives

Description:

The course introduces students to fundamental issues of theology through an analysis of the foundational narratives found in Christian tradition and scripture. Students will become familiar with the major sources of Christian theology as found in the Bible and the writings of significant Christian theologians. Students will learn basic vocabulary and strategies of theological reflection that relate theology to their current social and cultural context. The course requires class attendance, active participation, regular reading assignments and quizzes, short reflection papers, and three exams including the final.
