Term: Fall 2010
Instructor: James Kroemer
Course #: THEO 1001
Section: 120
Course Title: Introduction to Theology

Description:

This course will introduce the student to the academic study of theology. The first part of the course will examine the Bible, both the Old Testament (Hebrew Bible) and the New Testament. The second part of the course will acquaint the student with the historical development of the Christian tradition through the reading of representative theological texts. The purpose of the course is to prepare the student for future courses in theology. We also hope that the student will understand how theology has not only affected the life of the Church, but also the direction of the secular world, as well as the place Christian theology potentially may have in one's own world view.

The course will include two quizzes, two tests, and two short papers.
