UNDERGRADUATE COURSE DESCRIPTION

Term: Fall 2011
Instructor: Daniel Lloyd
Course #: THEO 2200
Sections: 101 and 102
Course Title: The Bible Through the Ages

Description:

The Bible has played a central role in the formation of Christian theology and history, and it has even helped to shape the very course of Western civilization. In this course, we will investigate important topics associated with the Bible, beginning with its formation. We will also analyze the nature of the Bible’s authority in the Church and how it has been expressed. Another point of interest will be the role and influence of Scripture among different Christian communities, as well as its impact on Western society in general. Furthermore, we will evaluate how certain major themes in the Bible were understood in different historical periods.
