UNDERGRADUATE COURSE DESCRIPTION

Term: Spring 2014
Instructor: Paul Monson
Course #: THEO 2210
Section: 101
Course Title: Theology Through the Centuries

Description:

This section of Theology through the Centuries will explore the development of Christian thought on the Incarnation and the Eucharist. It focuses on the first 1500 years of Christian theology, from Ignatius of Antioch (ca. 35-108) to Ignatius of Loyola (1491-1556). Students will read primary text excerpts from several influential writers in the Christian tradition. These include Athanasius of Alexandria, Benedict of Nursia, Anselm of Canterbury, Hildegard of Bingen, Bonaventure, Thomas Aquinas, Catherine of Siena and Martin Luther. The course will also consider the interplay between theology, art and music as Christians reflect on the mystery of the "Word becoming flesh."
