

UNDERGRADUATE COURSE DESCRIPTION

Term: Spring 2010
Instructor: Wanda Zemler-Cizewski
Course #: THEO 2210
Section: 102
Course Title: Theology Through the Centuries

Description:

The course is designed to introduce students to the history of Christian theology from its origins to the modern age. It will survey the origins, development, and articulation of distinctively Christian teaching about God, creation, the person and saving works of Jesus Christ, the person of the Holy Spirit, the community of faith and the moral responsibilities of all believers. Students will have the opportunity to read and discuss key texts by patristic, medieval, reformation and modern theologians. There will be two examinations featuring short answer questions and two essay topics.

Required texts:

- A. McGrath, Historical Theology ((Blackwell, 1998).

Optional texts:

- Bible (Catholic, or Protestant with Apocrypha)
