

UNDERGRADUATE COURSE DESCRIPTION

Term: Fall 2010
Instructor: Dr. Anthony Briggman
Course #: Theo 2210
Section: 103
Course Title: Theology Through the Centuries

Description:

THEO 2210 is a second-level theology course that counts toward the requirements of the University Core of Common Studies and the theology major; it considers the theology written during a substantial portion of Christian history. This section of Theo 2210 shall focus upon the earliest era of the church's theological articulation, the Patristic period, which lasted from ca. 100-500 CE. We shall consider the development of central doctrines of the Christian tradition, with particular attention given to the doctrines of the Trinity, Incarnation, Holy Spirit, and Salvation. A high emphasis will be placed on the daily reading of primary texts and on student participation in class discussions of these texts.
