UNDERGRADUATE COURSE DESCRIPTION

Term: Spring 2012
Instructor: Christopher J. Samuel
Course #: THEO 2210
Section: 103
Course Title: Theology Through the Centuries

Description:

Oftentimes, studying Theology can be thought of as studying the interface between physical and spiritual realities. This class will explore how Christianity has understood this interaction throughout the history of the church by learning how certain concepts have been understood: anthropology (what humanity is), ecclesiology (what the church is), Christology (who Christ is), and angelology (who the angels are). Readings will include works by Athanasius, Chesterton, Ratzinger, Luther, Aquinas, Von Balthasar, and others – including sermons from various points in history.
