UNDERGRADUATE COURSE DESCRIPTION

Term: Fall 2013
Instructor: Dr. Abraham B. Fisher
Course #: THEO 2310
Section: 103
Course Title: Explorations of Christian Theology
Variable Topic: Church, Sacrament, and Revelation

Description:

This course will examine the meanings and interconnections of three central themes of Christian theology: Sacraments (and the sacramental approach to reality), the Church, and Divine Revelation. Drawing upon a variety of theologians from throughout the tradition as well as documents from Vatican II, the course will seek to lead students to a greater understanding of each of these theological concepts through discovery of their intricate relationship with the other two. The course will emphasize critical reading of texts, and oral and written engagement with the arguments of the authors we read.
