UNDERGRADUATE COURSE DESCRIPTION

Term: Fall 2013
Instructor: Fr. John Thiede, S.J.
Course #: THEO 4390/5390
Section: 103
Course Title: Studies in Systematic Theology
Variable Topic: Perspectives from the Global South

Description:

This course will explore aspects of Systematic theology utilizing perspectives from the global South. The course will explore several systematic topics such as Christology, Mariology and Ecclesiology. We will read several key authors primarily from Latin America and Africa, such as Gustavo Gutierrez, Jon Sobrino, Juan Luis Segundo, and Leonardo Boff. The course will focus on key aspects of systematic theology in the global south such as the cross and the preferential option for the poor. The goal of the course is to give the student a greater understanding of systematic theology in the global south so as to broaden our own theological perspectives.
