GRADUATE COURSE DESCRIPTION

Term: Fall 2010
Instructor: Morales, Rodrigo
Course #: THEO 8319
Course Title: The Shorter Pauline Letters
Course Subtitle: The Letter to the Galatians

Content:

The primary purpose of this course is to read the text of Galatians carefully and thoughtfully, paying close attention to its historical context and literary shape, as well as its broader theological and pastoral themes. Students will also become familiar with some important recent and classic works on Galatians and on Paul more broadly by means of periodic book review presentations. This will be a largely student-driven seminar, though the instructor will provide occasional context, overview, and summary.

Format:

Seminar

Assignments and/or Examinations:

- Two in-class presentations, book review, seminar paper

Language Pre-requisites:

- Greek recommended, but not required; students expected to use at least one modern foreign language source
