

Department of Theology

GRADUATE COURSE DESCRIPTION

Term: Fall 2009
Instructor: Wanda Zemler-Cizewski
Course #: THEO 8424
Course Title: Theology of Thomas Aquinas
Course Subtitle: Aquinas in Medieval Context

Content:

The course covers the principal doctrines of the catholic faith—God, person and saving work of Christ, person and procession of the Holy Spirit, law, grace, and sacraments in Thomas Aquinas' Summa theologiae, with careful attention to his use of sources in the patristic and medieval tradition.

Format:

Lecture, seminar reports, and discussion.

Assignments and/or Examinations:

- At least one class report and preparation of a paper equivalent to a 20 minute conference presentation.

Language Pre-requisites:

- Latin (required only of historical area students in the PhD program)

Required Texts:

- To be announced

Optional texts:

-