Content:
The course focuses on the more accessible of Bonaventure's theological works, including the Itinerarium Mentis in Deum, the Tree of Life, the Life of St. Francis, and the Breviloquium, for a survey of his contributions both in the academic setting of the university of Paris, and as master general of the Franciscan order.

Format:
lecture and seminar

Assignments and/or Examinations:
- one major paper, a bibliography assignment, and a final essay examination, as well as class participation.

Language Pre-requisites:
- inclusion of modern foreign language items in the bibliography and for historical area students use of critical editions of the original Latin in the paper assignment.