Department of Theology

GRADUATE COURSE DESCRIPTION

Term: Spring 2012
Instructor: Dr. Mickey L. Mattox
Course #: THEO 8430
Course Title: Luther (Theology of Martin Luther)

Content:

This course introduces Martin Luther as a theologian and exegete. Students will become familiar with the central themes and problems in Luther’s life and theology, primarily through reading and discussion of primary texts. Secondary source readings will also be used to suggest Luther’s significance for contemporary theology.

Format:

The course will be based primarily on Luther’s Genesis lectures. Classroom time will be devoted to discussion of these and other texts.

Assignments and/or Examinations:

- PhD Students; two book reviews, and a research paper. MA Students; one book review and a shorter term paper.

Language Pre-requisites:

- Latin and German will be helpful, but not required.
