THE HISTORY OF LIBERATION THEOLOGY

I. HISTORICAL ANTECEDANTS

A. 1930-1955
   • Urbanization (secularization) and industrialization
   • Pluralism: Liberalism, secularism, Communism
   • Protestantism
   • Catholicism with Shallow Roots: The (colonial and post-colonial) Church of “Christendom” enters into crisis.
   • Catholic Responses
     b. CNBB ('52), CELAM ('55), CLAR ('58)

B. 1955-1965
   • The Cuban Revolution, 1959
   • Crisis of the development model of industry plus import-substitution. Alliance for Progress
   • Vatican II, 1962-1965. Called the most important event in Christianity in the 20th century: 16 documents (4 Constitutions, 9 Decrees, 3 Declarations). John XXIII’s dream of a “church of the poor”
   • Charismatic Leadership in Lat. Amer. (Manuel Larraín, Hélder Câmara, bishops McGrath, Arns, Pironio, Proano, Silva Henríquez, Méndez Arceo, etc.)
   • ISAL (Iglesia y Sociedad en Am. Lat., ‘60), progressive protestants

II. THE HISTORY OF LIBERATION THEOLOGY IN FOUR STAGES

In tracing this history, we distinguish four levels of the reality we are analyzing, four threads in the tapestry:
(1) Social reality,
(2) The Church, with its pastoral activity,
(3) Work of Theologians,
(4) The magisterium (official Catholic teaching).

Medellín Conference and Aftermath

1. Social Reality: Economic crisis, political polarization
   • Military coups, repression. Rule by technocrats
   • Rockefeller Report, 1969
   • Allende (Chile ‘70) and Velasco (Peru ‘68)

2. Pastoral practice: renewal
   • Social commitment, conscientization/radicalization of pastoral agents. Model of Camilo Torres (d. 1966), etc.
• Diffusion and implementation of Medellín documents. CELAM training and formation centers. Medellín, Quito, Santiago. G. Gutiérrez, E. Dussel, J.L. Segundo, J. Comblín, S. Galilea, J. Marins y E. Beltrán (CEBs), I. Illich, L. Gera. La CLAR. The struggle over the interpretation de Medellín. CLAR, the Latin American Conference of Religious, is very influential.
• Groups of committed priests (mostly): ONIS (Peru), Golconda (Colombia), Priests for the Third World (Argentina), The 80 (Chile). Christians for Socialism (founded, Nov.1971).

3. First writings of TL
• Major themes: LIBERATION, REIGN OF GOD, METHOD. DEPENDENCY THEORY

4. Magisterium

Second Stage: Maturation and Repression.
From Sucre (1972) to Puebla (1979)

1. Social reality
• More coups: Bolivia (‘71), Chile, (‘73), Argentina (‘76). Turn to the right in Peru (‘75) and Ecuador. Congress disbanded in Uruguay (‘73). Meanwhile Somoza (Nicaragua), Stroessner (Paraguay), Duvalier (Haiti). (Democracy “lite” in Mexico, Colombia, Venezuela and Costa Rica.)
• Repression (death, torture)
• Doctrine of National Security State
• Jimmy Carter’s human rights policy

2. Pastoral practice
• Persecution, martyrdom. The Banzer Plan (‘75)
• Polarization. Christians for Socialism meeting of Apr. ‘72 and aftermath.
• Preparations for Puebla: Which is the biggest challenge, secularization or poverty/injustic?? Manipulation and secretiveness; planning in the hands of López Trujillo, Card. Baggio and Vekemans.

3. Theologians
• Themes: GOD OF LIFE VS. IDOLS OF DEATH, CHRISTOLOGY (L. Boff and J. Sobrino), POPULAR RELIGION
• EATWOT (begins 1976). Class, race, gender and imperialism.

4. Magisterium
• Local episcopal documents

Third Stage: Controversy and Systematization.
From Puebla (1979) to Santo Domingo (1992)

1. Social Reality
• War and counter-revolution in Central America. Sandinista triumph (1979), with broad Christian participation.
• A wave of democratization. Peru (‘80), Honduras (‘82), Argentina (‘83), Brazil and Guatemala (‘85), Chile (‘88), Paraguay and Panama (‘89).
• Fall of Soviet communism (‘89-’91). Defeat of Sandinistas (‘90). Crisis of socialism (and of capitalism).

2. Pastoral practice
• Martyrdom of Archbp. Oscar Romero (1980).
• Appointment of conservative anti-TL bishops. (Option for church-institution and for “orthodox” teaching.)
• The challenge of Pentecostal Protestantism (“sectas”)”

3. Theologians
• SYSTEMATIZATION (The “Teología y Liberación” project, with 55 volumes planned. Mysterium liberationis).
• The “fall of utopias.” Less questioning of the economic system as a whole. Exception: Hinkelammert, etc.

4. Magisterium
• New Evangelization” (John Paul II, Haiti, 1983)
• Two Instructions of Ratzinger’s CDF, 1984 (two key concerns: Marxism and church unity) and 1986
• Leonardo Boff’s “obsequious silence,” 1986 (10 mos.). (Charism and Power).
• Letter of John Paul II to Brazilian bishops, 1986
• Santo Domingo, 1992. From see, judge, act to judge, act. CEBs and apostolic movements.
Fourth Stage: The Conservative Moment.
Santo Domingo, Aparecida y Benedict XVI
