

MARQUETTE LONERGAN PROJECT
SECOND ANNUAL COLLOQUIUM

“Doing Catholic Systematic Theology in a Multireligious World”

NOVEMBER 4–5, 2010

Raynor Memorial Libraries, Beaumier Suites B/C

The Marquette Lonergan Project hopes through annual colloquia to address the principal systematic-theological issues of our time in the context of contemporary religious diversity.

For more information, please call Rev. Robert Doran, S.J., Ph.D., at (414) 288-3164.

4 p.m. Thursday, November 4

Rev. Robert M. Doran, S.J., Ph.D., of Marquette will present the 2010 Doerr Lecture, “Social Grace and the Mission of the Word.”

Panel discussion and reception to follow: Dr. Paul LaChance, College of St. Elizabeth; Dr. Susan Wood, S.C.L., Marquette; Dr. John Dadosky, S.T.D., Regis College, University of Toronto

10 a.m. Friday, November 5

Rev. Thomas Hughson, S.J., Ph.D., of Marquette will present “Classical Christology and Social Justice: Why the Divinity of Christ Matters.”

A panel discussion will follow: Dr. Darren Dias, O.P., St. Michael's College, University of Toronto; Rev. Bryan Massingale, S.T.D., Marquette; Juliana Vazquez, Marquette graduate student

2 p.m. Friday, November 5

Dr. Danielle Nussberger of Marquette will present “The Spirit of Truth: Receiving and Communicating the Word in Dialogue.”

A panel discussion will follow: Dr. Randall Rosenberg, Fontbonne University; Jeremy Blackwood, Marquette graduate student; Anne Carpenter, Marquette graduate student

MARQUETTE UNIVERSITY

Be The Difference.