

DEPARTMENT OF THEOLOGY
AND THE
Luther Studies in a Catholic Context Program
PRESENT:

Dr. Franz Posset
(Ph.D, Marquette, 1984)

“In Search of the Historical Luther—by a Catholic”

Tuesday, March 9, at 4 p.m.

Reception to follow, Coughlin Hall, Rm. 100

Raynor Libraries Conference Center

Dr. Posset is the author of more than 50 articles and seven books, including most recently Renaissance Monks: Six Biographical Sketches of Monastic Humanists (Brill, 2005). In 2006, he was awarded the first annual Natalie Zemon Davis Prize for excellence in research by the journal Renaissance and Reformation / Renaissance et Réforme.

(Free and Open to the Public)