

Department of Theology

UNDERGRADUATE COURSE DESCRIPTION

Term: Fall 2008
Instructor: Jack Kilcrease
Course #: THEO 100
Section: 1003
Course Title: Hebrew Scriptures/Old Testament Overview

Description:

A survey of the Hebrew Bible, its historical contexts and religious ideas. Includes an analysis of selected texts from representative sections of the Old Testament and a discussion of their various theological visions of God, human beings and God's people in interrelationship.

Required texts:

James E. Bowley, Introduction to the Hebrew Bible: A Guided Tour of Israel's Sacred Literature, (Upper Saddle River, NJ: Prentice Hall, 2007)