

Department of Theology

UNDERGRADUATE COURSE DESCRIPTION

Term: Spring 2008
Instructor: L. William Oliverio, Jr.
Course #: THEO 1
Sections: 1001 and 1005
Course Title: Introduction to Theology

Description:

This course will introduce the student to the breadth and depth of Christian faith and its history. It will give students the opportunity to receive a survey of the biblical tradition, read classical texts in the history of Christian theology, to learn about the development of Christian thought through the major time periods of Christian history, and to reflect upon the interplay between Christian thought and Christian living.

Required texts:

- Any major translation of the Bible
- Introduction to Theology, Laurance, ed.
- Mere Christianity, C.S. Lewis
- Other text(s) TBA

Optional texts:

- None