SUMMER 2013 FACULTY-LED PROGRAMS

APPLICATION DEADLINE: March 1, 2013   APPLY ONLINE: marquette.edu/studyabroad

Marquette summer study abroad programs are an ideal opportunity for students to build on their global experiences. Faculty-led programs encourage students to deepen their knowledge about specific topics through guided academic work and hands-on experience abroad. The following programs are open to students from outside Marquette University. All dates and details are subject to change.

Cochabamba, Bolivia – Language and Culture

Dates: June 13–July 27  Subjects: Spanish (6 credits)

Faculty Leader: TBD

Engage in intensive Spanish language study at the Maryknoll Instituto de Idiomas in Bolivia’s “City of Eternal Spring.” This program is open to students studying Spanish from beginner to advanced levels. Students will be immersed in Bolivian culture through homestays, volunteer opportunities and excursions.

Beijing, China – Language and Culture

Dates: Late May–mid-June  Subjects: History and Chinese (6 credits)

Faculty Leader: Dr. Daniel Meissner and Professor Jing Zhai

This program offers students the opportunity to engage in Chinese language and history while living in the heart of one of China’s most culturally rich cities. Students will visit key historical, political and religious sites in and around Beijing, in addition to going on weekend excursions to such places as the Mongolian grasslands and commercial metropolis of Shanghai.

Estonia and Finland – Comparative Crime and Punishment

Dates: May 20–June 2  Subjects: Criminal Justice (3 credits)

Faculty Leader: Dr. Richard Jones

Students will study issues of crime and punishment alongside students from Tampere University in Finland. Individuals studying criminal justice will benefit from experiential learning through prison tours, visits to museums and interactions with criminal justice organizations. Additionally, students will experience Estonia and Finland through historical and cultural site visits.

Amman, Jordan – Project GO at AMIDEAST

Dates: June 13–August 8  Subjects: Arabic (6-12 credits)

Faculty Leader: Dr. Enaya Othman

Project GO at Marquette offers an eight-week summer intensive Arabic language program at AMIDEAST in Amman, Jordan. Students will live with local Arabic-speaking families and engage in experiential learning every day while gaining an insider perspective on local Jordanian culture. ROTC students are eligible for full scholarship.
Piura, Peru – Community Nursing Program

Dates: May 31–June 28 (session 1) and June 21–July 19 (session 2)
Faculty Leader: Dr. Darlene Weis
Subjects: Nursing (6 credits)

Nursing students will have the opportunity to complete their community clinical experience in Peru. Students will participate in a range of clinical experiences, from primary health care to hospice care to alcohol/drug treatment groups. On-campus course work takes place May 20–29. Program is full for 2013. Apply early for 2014.

Madrid, Spain – Marquette Study Center in Madrid

Dates: late June–late July
Subjects: Spanish (6 credits)
Faculty Leader: Dr. Anne Pasero

This program is the ideal introduction to Spain for those who want to improve their Spanish. In addition to classroom learning at the Universidad Complutense de Madrid, a top Spanish university, students will participate in guided visits and excursions to sites around Madrid and Spain. Prereq: 2 semesters college-level Spanish.

Spain – Ritual, Travel Traditions and Cultural Communication Along El Camino De Santiago

Dates: May 21–June 18
Subjects: Spanish or Theology (3 credits)
Faculty Leader: Dr. Eugenia Afinoguenova and Dr. Stephen Long

El Camino de Santiago is a historic pilgrimage through northern Spain. While walking along its path for six to eight hours a day, students will learn the history of this religious and tourism phenomenon. Students will examine the Camino de Santiago in multiple facets: as a channel of cultural communication, a travel tradition, a ritual and a pilgrimage.

Cape Town, South Africa – Genders and Sexualities in South African Contexts

Dates: June 13–July 5 (additional online pre- and post-course work required)
Subjects: Women’s and Gender Studies (6 credits)
Faculty Leader: Dr. Amelia Zurcher

With an emphasis on the complex context of colonialism, apartheid and global racism, this program will help students explore the exciting work on gender and sexuality being done in South Africa by both academics and activists through online, classroom and service learning experiences.
Many of Marquette's partner institutions around the world offer summer study abroad programs taught by their local faculty. Visit Marquette's study abroad website at marquette.edu/studyabroad for a complete program listing.
