UNDERGRADUATE COURSE DESCRIPTION

Term: Fall 2008
Instructor: Dr. Mattox
Course #: THEO 106
Sections: 1003 and H004 (Honors)
Course Title: Theology Through the Centuries
Course Sub-Title: From the Later Middle Ages to the Reformation

Description:

These sections of THEO 106 will survey the development of western theology from the late Patristic period to the eve of the Reformation. The course will focus on the development of theology, including the doctrine of the church, sacraments, nature and grace, and so on. This course is reading intensive.

Required texts:

- Primary source texts TBA
- Justo Gonzalez, The Story of Christianity, Vol. 1 (paperback)

Course Requirements:

- Midterm Exam
- Analysis and Reflection Papers (3)
- Final Exam