The Institute
The Institute allows sophomore students to participate in a six-day program provided by LeaderShape in partnership with Marquette University. As of January 2020, participants consisted of 40 students in the interdisciplinary Excellence in Leadership (E-Lead) Program and 20 students from the C-Lead Program in the Diederich College of Communication. The Institute challenges participants to lead with integrity while working towards a vision grounded in their deepest values. Here’s a photo from this year’s trip over winter break!
