SUMMER 2015 FACULTY-LED PROGRAMS

APPLICATION DEADLINE: March 1, 2015

APPLY ONLINE: marquette.edu/studyabroad

Marquette summer study abroad programs are an ideal opportunity for students to build on their global experiences. Faculty-led programs encourage students to deepen their knowledge about specific topics through guided academic work and hands-on experience abroad. All dates and details are subject to change. College of Business Administration programs are indicated with a number one and are not open to students from outside Marquette University.

Buenos Aires, Argentina — Language and Culture

Dates: May 29–June 26
Subjects: Spanish (6 credits)
Faculty Leader: Dr. Todd Hernandez

This program allows students to explore the urban landscape of Buenos Aires, a vibrant city of 13 million. Specialized coursework in Spanish language, second language acquisition, and Hispanic literature and culture will expand participant familiarity with Argentina beyond tango, Evita and fútbol. Prereq: 1 semester college-level Spanish.

Antwerp, Belgium — Business European Travel Program

Dates: May 17–June 7
Subjects: MANA 3002 or Business elective (3 credits)
Faculty Leader: Joseph Terrian

This program offers the opportunity to study the business, economic, social and cultural ramifications of the European Economic and Monetary Union. It includes lectures by University of Antwerp faculty, corporate visits to companies such as Ford, KBC Bank, or Nike and visits to the European Parliament and Commission. Anticipated cultural excursions include: Brugge, Ghent, Amsterdam and Paris.

Beijing and Shanghai, China — Graduate Business Program

Dates: May 21–31
Subjects: Business elective (3 credits)
Faculty Leader: Dr. Jamshid Hosseini

This program provides graduate students with critical insights and valuable first-hand experience with China’s business climate, culture, society and history. Highlights include lectures by Peking and Tongji University faculty, government officials, and Chinese business leaders. Students will also hear about the experience of working and living in China from U.S. and Chinese executives.
Europe — Tracing the Development of Psychotherapy in Europe

Dates: May 8–18
Subjects: Counseling (3 credits - graduate students only)
Faculty Leader: Dr. Peggy Bloom

Students will study the development of theories of psychotherapy from the 19th through the mid-20th century within the cultural and historical context of Europe. Visit the cities, historical sites and university labs and clinics where psychotherapy grew, including Vienna, Prague, Leipzig and Berlin. Prereq: Graduate level introduction to counseling theories course.

Finland and Estonia — Comparative Crime and Punishment

Dates: May 12–23
Subjects: Sociology/Social Welfare & Justice/Criminal Justice (3 credits)
Faculty Leader: Dr. Richard Jones

Students will study issues of crime and punishment alongside students from Tampere University in Finland. Individuals studying criminal justice will benefit from experiential learning through prison tours, visits to museums and interactions with criminal justice organizations. Additionally, students will experience Finland and Estonia through historical and cultural site visits.

Strasbourg, France; Frankfurt, Germany; Basel, Switzerland — Graduate Business Program

Dates: July 3–July 12
Subjects: Graduate business elective (3 credits)
Faculty Leader: Dr. Jamshid Hosseini

Graduate students will study the socio-political situation in the European Union and how U.S. businesses approach this unique market through an online course and ten-day European study program. In addition to seminars by the faculty of the Ecole de Management Strasbourg, the program will include presentations by experts from business, industry and the European Union.
Giessen, Germany — International & Comparative Law

Dates: July 18–August 15
Subjects: Law (4 credits)
Faculty Leader: Edward Fallone

This program brings together up to 60 students from all over the world to study comparative and international law. Excursions to Berlin and Munich to visit courts and other legal institutions, panel discussions on the differences and similarities in legal education and practice between the US, Germany and other countries, and lectures on a variety of topics enable students to broaden their perspectives on international law.

Rome, Italy — Business European Travel Program

Dates: June 28–July 11
Subjects: MANA 3002 or Business elective (3 credits)
Faculty Leader: Joseph Terrian & Sr. Eileen Ennis, SSND

This program will provide students with an opportunity to study international business in a European context. The course includes corporate visits to companies such as Manpower or Accrea Bank and lectures by professors from universities in Rome. Cultural visits include: Roman Ruins, St. Peter’s Basilica, Vatican Museums, etc.

Amman, Jordan — Project GO: The ROTC Language and Culture Project

Dates: June 10–Aug. 12
Subjects: Arabic (11-12 credits)
Faculty Leader: Abdellatif Oulhaj

Project GO at Marquette offers ROTC students a full-scholarship, eight-week intensive Arabic language program in Amman, Jordan. Students will live with local Arabic-speaking families and engage in experiential learning every day while gaining an insider perspective on Jordanian culture.
Rabat, Morocco — Language and Culture of Morocco

Dates: May 31–June 27
Subjects: Arabic or French (3 credits) and FOLA elective (3 credits)
Faculty Leader: Dr. Sally Gendron

Students will study French or Arabic and gain insights into the distinctive Moroccan culture through home stays and excursions to cities such as Fez and Marrakesh. Additional coursework will explore issues related to Moroccan identity and examine how it has been shaped by questions of gender, nationality, language, religion and interaction with the West.

Piura, Peru — Community Nursing Program

Dates: May 30–June 27 (session 1); June 20–July 18 (session 2)
Subjects: Nursing (6 credits)
Faculty Leader: Dr. Darlene Weis

Nursing students will have the opportunity to complete their community clinical experience in Peru. Students will participate in a range of experiences, from primary health care to hospice care to alcohol/drug treatment groups. On-campus course work is required prior to departure. Program is full for 2015. Apply by Feb. 1 for summer 2016.

Madrid, Spain – Language and Culture

Dates: June 28–July 30
Subjects: Spanish (6 credits)
Faculty Leader: Dr. Pilar Bellver

This program is the ideal introduction to Spain for those who want to improve their Spanish. In addition to classroom learning at the Universidad Complutense de Madrid, a top Spanish university, students will participate in guided visits and excursions to sites around Madrid and Spain. Prereq: 2 semesters college-level Spanish.

Spain – Ritual, Travel Traditions and Cultural Communication Along El Camino de Santiago

Dates: May 19–June 7
Subjects: Spanish or Theology (3 credits)
Faculty Leader: Dr. Steve Long and Dr. Anne Pasero

El Camino de Santiago is a historic pilgrimage through northern Spain. While walking along its path for six to eight hours a day, students will learn the history of this religious and historical route. Students will examine the Camino de Santiago in multiple facets: as a channel of cultural communication, a travel tradition, a ritual and a pilgrimage.
London, U.K. — Theatre Appreciation & Critical Writing: Covering the Arts

Dates: June 7–26
Subjects: Theatre Arts (3 credits) & Journalism (3 credits)
Faculty Leader: Dr. Stephen Hudson-Mairet and Dr. Pamela Hill Nettleton

Through this program, students will explore and reflect upon theatre and British culture in the performing arts capital of London. Participants will learn about the theatre scene through academic lectures and site visits, and participants will practice the skills and theories of arts criticism.

SUMMER SCHOLARSHIPS

There are a variety of national study abroad scholarship opportunities that Marquette students have had success in securing. Scholarships that are a good fit for summer programs include:

- Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholarship
  (for students receiving federal Pell Grant funding)
- Critical Language Scholarship
  (full scholarships for intensive summer language study in one of 13 critical foreign languages)

STUDY ABROAD 101

All non-business students interested in studying abroad are first asked to attend a Study Abroad 101 session. These sessions are designed for students at the very beginning stages of the study abroad process and are led by OIE study abroad coordinators. Topics include selecting a study abroad program, academic planning, application procedures, finances and scholarships. No registration necessary.

Study Abroad 101
2:30–3:30 p.m. Fridays
