The CfAH invites students, faculty, and staff to Marquette’s seventh annual semester-long reading of Marx's Capital: A Critique of Political Economy, Volume One, to begin in February 2022.

For those interested in capitalism, theory, philosophy, activism, and for those who are interested in reading a book that is often discussed but rarely read in its entirety. The group is open to faculty, staff, and students from any college or department at Marquette.

Times and dates will be determined by those who are interested in participating.

For more information about the reading group, please email michael.wert@marquette.edu
