Build your profile

Get started in two ways:

1. Build your personalized profile from scratch
2. Import your LinkedIn profile

The screenshot displays a user profile for Michael Preiner. At the top, there is a circular profile picture of a man, his name "Michael Preiner", and his title "Director of Development at Harvard Kennedy School". Below this, three location tags are visible: "2002", "Boston, MA, USA", and "Marquette University". A green button labeled "Message Michael" is positioned to the right. The main content area is divided into sections: "About", "Things in Common" (showing shared interests like "Marquette University", "Academia & Research", and "Exploring careers"), and "Professional Experience". The "Professional Experience" section lists three roles: "Director of Development" at Harvard Kennedy School (March 2017 - Present), "Director of Major Gifts" at Harvard Kennedy School (July 2015 - March 2017), and "Director of Development, Principal & Major Gifts" at Harvard Medical School (October 2013 - July 2015). A fourth role, "Associate Director of Major Gifts" at Harvard Medical School (October 2011 - October 2013), is partially visible at the bottom. On the right side, there is a progress indicator showing "91%" completion with the text "Almost there!". Below this is a checklist of profile completion steps, most of which are checked: "Add Headline", "Tell Us About Yourself", "Upload Profile Picture", "Add Location", "Add Education Background", "Add Professional Experience", "Are You Here to Help?", and "Enable Video Intro". A blue button labeled "Import LinkedIn Profile" is located at the bottom right.
