

BizCareers – Oct. 10, 2021

Dear NAME:

Freshman Intro: You've almost made it to fall break! We know this point in the semester can feel very busy. Keep up your hard work and continue to pursue opportunities to learn about careers and connect with organizations. In addition to the details below, please remember that student organizations are a great way to meet students, learn about majors and careers, build valuable skills and have fun. Many student organizations accept new members throughout the year. Check out a list of business student organizations here (there are two tabs – one with descriptions and one with contact information) and a full MU list here.
