How To:

Access Academic Integrity Tutorial
Accessing D2L

• Access is via CheckMarq or at https://d2l.mu.edu (No www)
  • Your username and password are the same for D2L and CheckMarq.
• Step-by-step instructions on the various uses and access to D2L is posted at: http://business.marquette.edu/academics/how-to

*Note: Use the username you were given, not email address
D2L Homepage

Information regarding ‘Academic Tutorial’ – you may access the Tutorial here

Link to access ‘Academic Integrity Tutorial’
Academic Integrity Tutorial

Select ‘Graduate Academic Integrity Tutorial’

Tutorial Overview

Marquette University has taken a more proactive approach toward building knowledge and developing a culture around personal and academic integrity. Several initiatives will remind students, faculty, and staff of the importance of academic integrity. One of these initiatives is a mandatory online tutorial on academic integrity for undergraduate students and a separate one for graduate students. Select the appropriate tutorial link below to begin:

- Undergraduate Academic Integrity Tutorial
- Graduate Academic Integrity Tutorial

NOTE: Law and Dental students are exempt.
Academic Integrity Tutorial

Note: In order to register for a course, you must complete the tutorial before the specified time (outlined in red).

Set aside about an hour to complete the tutorial.

Note: Mobile access is not recommended – the tutorial is best viewed on a desktop or laptop.

When you are ready to begin, click ‘Start Graduate Tutorial’.
AI Tutorial to Note

• Check your MU Email and/or D2L Homepage for information in regards to completing the AI tutorial.
• All Students must pass with an 85% or higher to register for a course.
• With the conclusion of the tutorial, you will be notified whether or not you have passed.
• If you do not complete the AI tutorial within the appropriate time, a hold will be put on your registration.
• If you do not pass, you have the opportunity to take the tutorial again until you have passed with an 85% or higher.