

APPLICATION FOR PRE-LAW SCHOLARS PROGRAM

Be The Difference.

Marquette University's Pre-law Scholars Program allows students to receive the benefits of Marquette's distinctive liberal arts and sciences education while enjoying conditional admission to the university's law school.

Pre-law Scholars complete a bachelor's degree and law degree in only six years, rather than the seven years normally required. Pre-law Scholars complete the undergraduate part of their studies in three years and are awarded a bachelor's degree upon successful completion of their first year in the Law School.

Each year, Marquette University will enroll 15 students in the Pre-law Scholars program. By fulfilling the conditions to remain in the program, Pre-law Scholars will be admitted to the Marquette University Law School by the end of the junior year.

Requirements:

- High school rank at or near the top 10 percent (when applicable)
- ACT composite score of 28 or SAT combined score of 1260 (math and verbal)
- Students must enroll in the College of Arts and Sciences, Business Administration or Communication.

Pre-Law Essay:

Please describe your personal and educational experiences that have stimulated your interest in a law career. (350-500 words)

Activities

These programs draw very talented applicants who have been deeply and broadly involved in their lives beyond the classroom. Please reflect upon your high school career and, on the next page, identify up to 12 extracurricular and/or service activities that best represent you.

While we don't wish to be unaccommodating, we should tell you that the review committees will review only the activities you highlight on the next page; additional lists or materials will not be forwarded to the selection committee. You may wish to keep a copy of the activities page as many Marquette scholarship programs require its submission.

Pre-Law Essay
