

CCRC Meeting Approved Minutes
March 28, 2007, 3.30-5.00 PM
Tommy Thompson Room, Raynor Library

Present: Audi, Bond, Franzoi, Hay, Howes, Johnson, Matthews, Ravel, Sobush, Sorby, Thorn, Vandavelde, Krueger (chair)

Excused: Coan, Moyer, Stewart

1. Call to order at 3.35, reflection by Pol Vandavelde
2. Minutes of February 14, 2007, approved unanimously

Old Business

3. Announcements
  1. Krueger updated the CCRC on the Assessment Pilot, including number of returned activities thus far (10); possible times to meet with students to gather feedback; and pending consultations with student government about implementation options
  2. Krueger reported on progress towards a Diverse Cultures workshop in September 2007.
    - Drs. Franzoi, Sobush and Krueger participated in a Division of Student Affairs Diversity Committee event for students on March 22, at which we recruited 20 students to help plan the workshop. Invitations will be sent to them to meet with CCRC representatives on April 25, 5-7, Office of International Education, 4th floor AMU.
    - An event with Diverse Cultures faculty is scheduled for April 26, 4-6, Lalumiere Faculty Lounge. CCRC members have been assigned diverse cultures faculty to contact personally with an invitation.
4. Six questions regarding the UCCS will be included on the Senior Survey, Krueger reported.
5. Motion: To remove Phil 188: Eastern Philosophy from the table (Howes moved; Thorn 2nd)
Vote: Yes: Unanimous

Motion: To approve Phil 188: Eastern Philosophy for the Diverse Cultures Knowledge Area of the University Core of Common Studies (Ravel moved, Sorby 2nd)
Vote: Yes: Unanimous

New Business

6. Ravel offered the Diverse Cultures sub-committee report on Hist 082: Survey of East Asian Civilization. The sub-committee approved of the course content and themes, but asked that the template and syllabus be revised to explain precisely how student achievement of learning outcomes would be demonstrated. The CCRC as a whole then discussed the proposal and instructed Krueger to convey desired revisions to the department of history.
7. Meeting adjourned at 4.50.