Race, Ethnic and Indigenous Studies
Marquette University continues to seek to diversify its faculty, student body and curricula. In support of these goals, Marquette is hiring tenure-track faculty members in the following areas who will also affiliate with the Race, Ethnic and Indigenous Studies interdisciplinary program:

- Economics
- Psychology
- Engineering
- Communication (2 positions)
- Philosophy
- Anthropology
- Theology
- Nursing

As a Catholic, Jesuit university, our history and mission call us to provide higher education to first-generation college students. New programming and hiring, plans to become a Hispanic Service Institution, and efforts aimed at diversifying scholarship and learning more broadly are central to Marquette’s commitment to diversity and inclusion.

Learn more about the new positions and about Marquette’s commitment to diversity and inclusion at marquette.edu/diversity. Further questions about this initiative can be directed to William Welburn, vice president for inclusive excellence, at william.welburn@marquette.edu.