Independent Auditors’ Report

Board of Trustees
Marquette University:

Opinion

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Marquette University (the University), which comprise the consolidated statements of financial position as of June 30, 2023 and 2022, and the related consolidated statements of activity, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the University as of June 30, 2023 and 2022, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors’ Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the University and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the University’s ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date that the consolidated financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors’ Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors’ report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the consolidated financial statements.
In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the University’s internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the University’s ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

1) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Organization

Marquette University (the university) is an independent, coeducational, not-for-profit institution of higher learning and research located in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, formally opened in 1881 and conducted under the auspices of the Society of Jesus. The university provides education and training services, primarily for students enrolled in undergraduate, graduate, and professional degree programs and performs research, training and other services under grants, contracts and other agreements with sponsoring organizations, including both government agencies and private enterprises.

The consolidated financial statements include Flora Real Properties LLC (Flora). Flora is fully controlled by the university through 100% ownership. Flora operates commercial real estate activities in the university campus area.

(b) Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements of the university have been prepared in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP).

The accompanying consolidated financial statements present information regarding the university’s financial position and activities according to two classes of net assets: without donor restrictions and with donor restrictions.

(i) Without Donor Restrictions

Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed restrictions.

(ii) With Donor Restrictions

Net assets that are subject to donor restrictions that will be met either by actions of the university or the passage of time. Also included in this category are net assets subject to donor-imposed restrictions to be maintained permanently by the university, wherein the donor stipulates that the corpus of the gift be held in perpetuity and the income from those assets be made available for scholarships or program operations.

(c) Use of Estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues, and expenses during the reporting period as well as the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(d) Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash equivalents with original maturities of three months or less are classified as cash and cash equivalents, except those amounts held by investment managers, which are classified as investments. The fair value of cash equivalents is estimated to be the same as book value due to the short maturity of these instruments.
(e) Pledges Receivable, Net

Unconditional promises to give are recognized initially at fair value as contribution revenue in the period a donor makes the promise. The fair value of the pledge is estimated based on anticipated future cash payments discounted using a risk-adjusted rate commensurate with the duration of the planned payments. In subsequent periods, the discount rate is unchanged. Pledges receivable are net of an allowance for uncollectible amounts. Allowance for uncollectible pledges is calculated based upon the university’s past collection experience. The allowance is reassessed and adjusted as necessary. Balances are written off when they are deemed permanently uncollectible.

(f) Student Accounts and Loans Receivable, Net

At June 30, student accounts and loans receivable consisted of the following:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>2023</th>
<th>2022</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Federal government loan programs</td>
<td>$19,993</td>
<td>22,855</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Institutional loan programs</td>
<td>1,822</td>
<td>1,701</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Student receivables</td>
<td>8,816</td>
<td>7,823</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Grants receivables</td>
<td>9,315</td>

</tr>
<tr>

<tr>

<td>(4,087)</td>
<td>(3,257)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Student accounts and loans receivable, net</td>
<td>$44,146</td>
<td>47,064</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The university records an allowance for uncollectible accounts when, in management’s judgment, it is probable a portion of the receivable or loan will not be collected. Allowances for doubtful accounts are established based on prior collections. Balances are written off when they are deemed permanently uncollectible.

(g) Investments

Investments are reported at fair value based on market quotes with unrealized gains and losses thereon included in the consolidated statements of activities. For alternative investments, the net asset value is used as a practical expedient in estimating fair value, based on information provided by fund managers or general partners. The estimated values are reviewed and evaluated by the university. Due to the inherent uncertainty of these estimates, these values may differ materially from the values that would have been used had a ready market for these investments existed.

(h) Property, Buildings, and Equipment, Net

Property, buildings, and equipment are recorded at cost at the date of acquisition or fair value at the date of donation including, where appropriate, capitalized interest. Property and equipment under capital leases are initially valued and recorded on the present value of minimum lease payments. The university depreciates buildings, building improvements, land improvements, equipment, library contents, and eBooks over the estimated useful lives of the assets (25 to 50, 10 to 20, 10 to 20, 5 to 7, 20 and 20 years, respectively) using the straight-line method. Leasehold improvements are amortized over the shorter of the expected useful life of the asset or term of the related lease.

Property, buildings, and equipment include the following at June 30, 2023 and 2022:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>

</tbody>

Long-lived assets such as property and equipment, are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the asset may not be recoverable.

Capital gifts to acquire or construct long-lived assets are recorded as a gift with donor restrictions until the related asset is placed in service, at which time the capital gift is released from net assets with donor restrictions to net assets without donor restrictions as other non-operating activity and subsequently amortized into operations over the estimated useful life of the acquired or constructed asset. This amortization, which amounted to $7,957 in fiscal year 2023 and $6,668 in fiscal year 2022, is recorded as a reclassification between non-operating and operating sections of the changes in net assets without donor restrictions in the consolidated statement of activities.
Refundable Federal Loan Grants
The university participates in the Perkins, Health Professionals Student, Nursing Student, Nurse Faculty, ARRA-Nurse Faculty, and Loans for Disadvantaged Student federal revolving loan programs. The university holds certain amounts advanced from the federal government to facilitate these loan programs. In the event the university no longer participates, the amounts related to the program are generally refundable to the government.

Student Tuition and Fees
Student tuition revenue is recognized in the fiscal year in which the academic programs are delivered. Scholarships reduce the amount of revenue recognized. The university provided student tuition discounts of $199,032 and $197,062 in 2023 and 2022, respectively. Students who withdraw may receive a full or partial refund in accordance with the university’s refund policy.

Deferred tuition revenue and deposits represents payments for summer term courses conducted in July and August along with deposits for the fall academic term.

The balance of deferred tuition revenue at June 30, 2023, will be recognized as revenue in the year ending June 30, 2024, as services are rendered.

Auxiliary Enterprises
Auxiliary enterprises include revenues and expenses of the university for room and board, parking services, commercial property rentals and gift shops.

Contributions
Contributions, including unconditional promises to give (pledges), are recorded as operating revenue. Gifts, excluding artwork, are recognized in the appropriate category of net assets in the period.
received. Contributions are recorded at their estimated fair value at the date the gift is received. Contributions receivable due beyond one year are stated at estimated net present value, net of an allowance, and recorded as net assets with donor restrictions until cash payments are received and donor restrictions are fulfilled. Allowances and revisions to previous year contributions based on donor amendments or clarifications of intent are reflected within the consolidated statements of activities as a nonoperating item. Contributions with donor-imposed conditions are not recognized unless it is reasonably expected that the conditions can be met.

(m) Operating Income

Operating results in the consolidated statement of activities reflect all transactions that change net assets without donor restrictions, except for activity associated with endowment investments and certain other nonrecurring transactions, including adjustments to allowance for uncollectible contributions, changes due to adopting new accounting guidance, and other gains and losses. In accordance with the university’s endowment distribution policy as described in note 4, only the portion of total investment return distributed under this policy to meet operating needs is included in operating revenue. Operating investment income consists of dividends, interest, and realized gains and losses on unrestricted non-endowed investments.

(n) Income Taxes

The university is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and Section 71.26(1)(a) of the Wisconsin statutes and is generally not subject to federal and state income taxes. However, the university is subject to income taxes on any income that is derived from a trade or business regularly carried on, and not in furtherance of the purposes for which it was granted exemption.

There was no provision for income taxes due on unrelated business income and there are no uncertain tax positions considered to be material.

As of June 30, 2023, the university has a federal tax credit carryforward of $2,046, which expires between fiscal years 2033 and 2041.

(o) Post-retirement Benefits

The university provides retired employees access to certain healthcare and life insurance benefits. University employees become eligible to access these benefits when their years of service plus age equal 70 with a minimum age of 55. Qualified retired employees under the age of 65 are eligible to participate in the university’s healthcare plan. Retirees are expected to pay the full cost of their premiums, based on the claims experience associated with that defined group of retired employees. The university also pays group life insurance premiums for active or future retired employees hired prior to February 1, 1982, that provide for limited death benefits. The premiums paid are based on the group community rate associated with death claims filed for the entire population of employees and retirees participating in the program. As of June 30, 2023 and 2022, the university had post-retirement benefits payable of $3,613 and $4,906, respectively.
Art Collection

The university has various collections of fine arts and rare books in museums, libraries, and on loan. The university does not assign or record a value to art works and other collections received as gifts or purchased with contributions restricted for that purpose. Valuations for some collections are updated periodically, and as such, the total of all fine arts may vary with appraisals and/or auction prices. Accordingly, the values of fine art and other collections have been excluded from the consolidated statements of financial position. Proceeds, if any, deaccessions or insurance recoveries are reflected as increases in the appropriate net asset classes. The art and other collections are subject to a requirement that proceeds from their sales be used to acquire other items for the collections. Fine arts are included in insurance coverage for the university property and a separate policy is also secured for fine art of high value and where appraised values are listed. As of June 30, 2023, the specific policy covering highly valued works provides for insured coverage of $100,000 aggregate limit (subject to policy sublimit including $3,000 for the Joan of Arc Chapel) for any one loss or any one occurrence and includes some appraised items from the library collections.

Reclassifications

Certain amounts in the 2022 net asset footnote have been reclassified to conform to the 2023 presentation.

Availability of Financial Assets for General Expenditures

Resources available to the university to fund general expenditures, such as operating expenses, scheduled principal payments on debt, and internally funded capital costs have seasonal variations related to the timing of tuition payments, receipts of gifts and pledge payments, and transfers from the endowment. The university actively manages its resources, utilizing a combination of short-term and long-term operating investment strategies to align cash inflows with anticipated outflows. At June 30, 2023, existing financial assets and liquidity resources available within one year were as follows:

Additionally, the university has $112,551 in board designated funds functioning as endowment of which $84,027 could be liquidated within one year with Board approval, however no liquidation is anticipated as of June 30, 2023. The university’s investment policy follows Wisconsin’s Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (“UPMIFA”), which requires institutions to maintain intergenerational equity, meaning the university must make efforts to preserve purchasing power of the endowment for both current and future generations served by the university.

The fair value of the university’s financial instruments is determined using the valuation methods and assumptions as set forth below. While the university believes that its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with those of other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value at the reporting date.

Fair values of cash and cash equivalents are based on observable market quotation prices provided by investment managers and the custodian bank at the reporting date.

Investments include money funds, federal, state, local agency, nongovernment, asset and mortgage-backed and foreign fixed income securities, stocks, mutual funds, commingled funds, real estate, multi-strategy hedge funds and private equity partnership and membership interests. Investments are based on valuations provided by external investment managers and the custodian banks. Valuations provided by external investment managers and the custodian bank include observable market quotation prices, observable inputs other than quoted prices such as price services or indexes, estimates, appraisals, assumptions and other methods that are reviewed by management. Real estate, multi-strategy hedge funds, commingled funds and private equity partnerships are valued using net asset value; however, it is possible that the redemption rights of certain investments may be restricted by the funds in the future in accordance with the underlying fund agreements. Changes in market conditions and the economic environment may impact the net asset value of the funds and consequently the fair value of the university’s interests in the funds.

Accounting standards establish a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to measurements involving significant unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). The standard describes three levels of inputs that may be used to measure fair value:

Level 1: Observable inputs such as quoted prices in active markets that the university has the ability to access at the measurement date.

Level 2: Inputs other than quoted prices in active markets such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities; quoted prices in markets that are not active; or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities.

Level 3: Unobservable inputs where there is little or no market data and requires the reporting entity to develop its own assumptions and includes funds held in trust by others.

The university’s policy is to reflect transfers between levels at the end of the year in which a change in circumstances results in the transfer.

The following table presents the university’s financial instruments at fair value as of June 30, 2023. The categorization of financial instruments within the hierarchy is based on price transparency and does not necessarily correspond to the perceived risk of the instruments.

(4) Endowment

(a) Interpretation of Relevant Law Governing Endowments

The State of Wisconsin enacted the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (UPMIFA) on July 20, 2009. This law provides, among other things, expanded spending flexibility by allowing, subject to a standard of prudence, the university to spend from an endowment fund without regard to the book value of the corpus. The university classifies as net assets with donor restrictions (a) the original value of gifts donated to the permanent endowment, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the permanent endowment, and (c) accumulations to the permanent endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument. Also included in net assets with donor restrictions is accumulated appreciation on endowment funds which are available for expenditure in a manner consistent with the standard of prudence established by UPMIFA.

(b) Underwater Endowment Funds

From time to time, the value of assets associated with a permanently restricted fund may fall below the historical cost. Deficiencies of this nature are reported in net assets with donor restrictions. These deficiencies resulted from unfavorable market conditions that occurred after the investment of endowed contributions and from appropriations to certain programs. As of June 30, 2023 and 2022, funds with fair market values of $32,867 and $33,873, and original gift values of $35,738 and $36,466, were underwater by $2,871 and $2,593, respectively.
(c) Endowment Spending Policy

The primary objective of the spending policy is to provide a steady cash flow stream while at the same time protecting the purchasing power of the endowment fund’s principal. Adopting the target rate approach provides the university with a level-spending plan. Spending allotments will begin with the flat amount allocated to each individual endowment fund balance as of June 30, 2004, that may grow each year by an inflationary amount not to exceed 3%. Spending allotments will be increased by new gift additions to the individual endowment funds receiving spending authority equal to 5% of the new gift amount.

Compliant with UPMIFA, the university will be allowed to prudently withdraw spendable funds even if an endowment’s market value is less than its historical book value. Any “return” that is not required to meet spending shall be retained in the endowment funds and invested in accordance with the investment policy statement.

A risk control mechanism will be employed that keeps spending within a range of 4 – 6% of market value in order for the asset allocation policy to work with a minimum target rate of return of 8% (5% average spending and 3% inflation).

(d) Endowment Investment Policy

The endowment fund’s investment objective is to preserve its purchasing power while providing a continuing and stable funding source to support the overall mission of the university. To accomplish this objective, the endowment fund seeks to generate a total return that will exceed its annual spendable amount, all expenses associated with managing the endowment fund, and the eroding effects of inflation. It is the intention that any excess return (interest income, dividends, realized gains, and unrealized gains), above and beyond the amount approved for expenditure or distribution, will be reinvested in the endowment fund. The endowment fund will be managed on a total return basis, consistent with the applicable standard of conduct set forth in UPMIFA.

The endowment fund has a long-term investment horizon with relatively low liquidity needs. For this reason, the endowment fund can tolerate short- and intermediate-term volatility provided that long-term returns meet or exceed its investment objective. Consequently, the endowment fund may take advantage of less liquid investments, such as private equity, hedge funds, and other partnership vehicles, which typically offer higher risk-adjusted return potential as compensation for forfeiture of liquidity. To ensure adequate liquidity for distributions and to facilitate rebalancing, the university will conduct ongoing reviews of total fund liquidity.

Endowment net assets without donor restriction are “Investments functioning as endowment” that are not permanently restricted by donors but are designated by the university for endowment purposes.

(5) Irrevocable Split-Interest Agreements and Funds Held in Trust by Others

The university's split-interest agreements with donors consist primarily of charitable gift annuities, pooled income funds, and charitable remainder trusts for which the university serves as trustee. Assets held in these trusts are included in investments. Contribution revenues are recognized at the date the trusts are established after recording liabilities for the present value of the estimated future payments to be made to the donors or other beneficiaries. Annuity and other split-interest liabilities are recorded at their present value, using a risk-adjusted discount rate and, if applicable, the estimated life expectancy of the donor or other beneficiaries.

The university is the beneficiary of trusts that, in accordance with the decedent’s instructions, are managed and maintained by separate trustees not affiliated with the university. The university receives distributions from the trusts. The fair value of the trusts was $26,010 and $24,572 at June 30, 2023 and 2022, respectively, and are included in investments on the consolidated statement of financial position.

For those agreements where the university does not serve as trustee but is designated as an irrevocable beneficiary of the trust, restricted funds held in trust and revenue are recognized for the present value of the estimated future benefits due to the university over the life of the trust and when the trust is distributed. The present value calculation of the trust considers both the discount rate and, if applicable, the estimated life expectancy of the trust originator.

(6) Pledges Receivable, Net

Pledges receivable expected to be collected within one year are recorded at net realizable value. Pledges receivable expected to be collected in future years are recorded at the present value of estimated future cash flows. The discounts on those amounts are computed using an appropriate risk-free rate of return on the date the promise to give is received. Amortization of the discount is included in contribution revenues.

As of June 30, 2023, and 2022, the contributions receivable is due as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>2023</th>

</table>

In addition, the university has received certain conditional promises to give that are in the form of revocable trusts, bequests and pledges. As of June 30, 2023 and 2022, the fair value of these conditional promises is approximately $187,176 and $165,363, respectively. These amounts can be recognized as revenue in the periods in which the conditions are fulfilled.
(7) Leases

The university has operating leases, primarily for athletic facility use, clinic space, office space and vehicles, which expire over the next twelve years. Some leases contain renewal options. For instances where it is probable that the university will renew, the renewal period is included in the lease period and calculations. Certain leases include payment escalators based on stated rates. Variable lease payments based on stated rates such as mileage or sales volume are not included in the calculation of lease liabilities and right-of-use (ROU) assets but, rather, are recognized during the year incurred. The present value of the lease obligation is determined using a discount rate equal to the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if unavailable, the university’s incremental borrowing rate is used. Included in ROU calculations are adjustments to lease payments made as a result of COVID-19 economic impact.
