Part III Line 1a The University has various collections of fine arts in museums, libraries and on loan. The University does not assign or record a value to art works and other collections received as gifts or purchased with contributions restricted for that purpose.
 Valuations for some collections are updated periodically, and as such, the total value of all fine arts may vary with appraisals and/or auction prices. Accordingly, the value of fine art and other collections has been excluded from the statements of financial position. Proceeds, if any, from deaccessions or insurance recoveries are reflected as increases in the appropriate net asset classes. The art and other collections are subject to a requirement that proceeds from their sales be used to acquire other items for collections. Fine arts are included in insurance coverage for University property and a separate policy is also secured for fine art of high value and where appraised values are listed. As of both June 30, 2013 and 2012, the specific policy covering highly valued works provides for insured coverage of $79,000,000 aggregate limit for any one loss or any one occurrence and includes some appraised items from library collections. As of both June 30, 2013 and 2012, additional fine art values covered for loss in other insurance programs are estimated of approximately $3,800,000.

Part III Line 4 The Haggerty Museum serves as a laboratory for learning focused on visual arts by collecting, exhibiting and interpreting works of art in the context of Marquette University and the City of Milwaukee. The Museum's exhibitions and educational programs are designed to contribute to transformational life-long learning and enjoyment of the arts.

Part V Line 4 Endowment earnings are used for student scholarships, academic program support and general operations.

Part X Line 2 The University is generally exempt from federal income tax pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code) and is a tax-exempt organization described in Sections 501(c)(3), 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(ii) of the Code. The Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued guidance prescribing how an organization should recognize, measure, present and disclose in its financial statements uncertain tax positions. The University must recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by the taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. As of both June 30, 2013 and 2012, the University did not have any uncertain tax positions.
