TOULOUSE-LAUTREC: LA CLOWNESSE
The Haggerty is pleased to offer the framed print La Clownesse by the great late 19th century French painter of Parisian café life. This print shows the Moulin Rouge’s female clown and gymnast, Cha-a-Kao (a nickname based on chahut-chaos or “noise and chaos,” the name of another dance). Cha-a-Kao was featured in a number of the artist’s works. Under the direction of Toulouse-Lautrec’s nephew, a highly-desirable limited edition of his most celebrated works was printed by Éditions des Légendes in 1992 and made available to the Haggerty.

1. A ONE-OF-A-KIND BY PFISTER ART-IN-RESIDENCE
   STEPHANIE BARENZ
   Stephanie Barenz created the painting “Steeples Below Wire” especially for the Haggerty 2013 pARTy. Known for her paintings that pay homage to place and time, Barenz integrates elements of Marquette’s campus and neighborhood into this new work. The painting will be a perfect gift for a very special Marquette alum or a wonderful addition to your own collection!
   Donors: Bob and Kathy Tatterson
   Value: $1,000
   Opening Bid: $500
   Buy-It-Now: $1,000

2. DAVID SEAR PAINTING
   Wisconsin’s David Sear painted “Pulse”, a subtly glittering portrait of water that will make a wonderful addition to your art collection. In Sear’s artist’s statement he describes growing up on the Mississippi River and the impact of his time on the water with his fisherman father: “The days I spent with him on the channels and backwaters left indelible impressions of light, sound, smells and movement.” Sear’s work beautifully captures the river’s currents and colors infused with light from the sun. More of Sear’s work is available at the Katie Gingrass Gallery.
   Donor: David Sear
   Value: $225
   Opening Bid: $100
   Buy-It-Now: $225
3. PRAIRIE HOMESTEAD
Surrounded by level, unbroken earth and the sky, this painting depicts the solitude of a prairie farmhouse. The dark blues of the sky and reds of the earth add to the deep quiet of the work by Mequon artist Deb Mortl. Among her accomplishments, Mortl is a 2013 featured artist at Door County's fine line designs Gallery.
Donor: Deb Mortl

Value: $200
Opening Bid: $70
Buy-It-Now: $200

4. ALEXANDRE
This print reveals the intent gaze of a young boy looking out beyond the picture frame at the viewer. With one shoe tied and the other untied, it appears he is not quite ready to meet the day.
Donors: Bob and Sandy Pavlic

Value: $500
Opening Bid: $100
Buy-It-Now: $500

5. ECHOES OF AFRICA
African art is hot these days and this striking sculpture of a mother and baby gazelle, crafted by a young Tuareg woman, is a wonderful piece. Seminomadic herders and traders from the central Sahara, the Tuareg, with their elegant dress, exquisite ornamentation, refined song, speech, and dance, have fascinated travelers and scholars throughout history. This work reflects the region's rich tradition of working with wood and other organic materials. Date: 1995
Donors: Rosemary and John Monroe

Value: $800
Opening Bid: $300
Buy-It-Now: $800

6. GEORG JENSEN CANDELABRA
Georg Jensen, acclaimed Danish purveyor of contemporary crafted silver, fine pewter and stainless steel objects, presents this dramatic large-scale stainless candelabra. The work is a part of the MASTERPIECES modern collection as a reinterpretation of an original silver hollowware design first created in 1960 by Søren Georg Jensen. The new collection pays tribute to Jensen’s legacy but updates the style and material to give it a current edge. The candlestick was originally created in 1960 as an altar candle for use in a modern Scandinavian-style church. The 2007 version is in stainless steel and holds two tapered candles. The structure of the candleholder is in many ways an iconic example of clean-lined Danish design of the post-World War II era. Package includes candles.

8. OUTSIDER ART AND A NOD TO DON QUIXOTE

With an Outsider Art nod to Don Quixote and his windmills, Mequon artist, Lee Walther Kordus took inspiration from the graphic circular doodles on eight fabric dinner and cocktail napkins and from the label of a bottle of 2009 Melee Red Wine from Tuck Berkstoffer Wines in Napa Valley to create six hand painted wine glasses and a matching chip ‘n’ dip set designed exclusively for the 2013 Haggerty Gala. The graphic circular doodles in the design are repeated in the cobalt wire trim on the wine glasses and in coordinating handmade wire napkin rings.

While labeled a red wine, the 2009 Melee is a Grenache augmented with 5% Syrah. Big, dark and elegant, the wine is oozing with passion and varietal flavor. The wine, dark red velvet in color has a primal nature - a rich but animalistic robustness like a caged tiger in a red velvet robe. Fewer than 1000 bottles of the 2009 Melee were produced.

Hand painted glass is hand wash only. Additional glassware can be special ordered.

Donors: Benedict and Lee Kordus

A WORD ABOUT THE TAX ADVANTAGES OF PARTICIPATING IN THE VOICE AND SILENT AUCTIONS...

According to the IRS, donors who purchase items at a charity auction may claim a charitable contribution deduction for the excess of the purchase price paid for an item over its fair market value. The values of the items and opportunities in this catalog have been determined by the donors of these goods and services. If you pay more than the published value, the difference between the amount paid and the published value may constitute a charitable contribution deduction.

If you are sharing the cost of an auction item between Friends, each party must directly pay by their own means in order to receive a potential charitable contribution deduction.
