

Preview: Application to Core Honors

Note: Once you have been admitted to Marquette, you will find the link to this application to Core Honors on your Marquette Student Status page account. To apply to Core Honors, please be sure to follow the steps there; this is only a preview.

Application to Core Honors is open to all students who have been admitted to Marquette. The deadline for application to Core Honors is January 15, 2020.

Core Honors Values:

In Core Honors, we value and seek to build

- breadth as well as depth of learning;
- curiosity, open-mindedness, and the disposition to put knowledge into action; and
- a community that fosters the inclusion of all humans and develops from the experiences and perspectives of all its members.

To apply to be part of Core Honors, you have three options. No preference will be given to any option in reviewing applications; all options are equally valid.

Please choose one of the following three options, and follow the instructions exactly.

a. Email muhonorsadmissions@mu.edu requesting a phone or skype conversation with an Honors peer mentor (a current Honors student), in which you explain why you would be a good fit for Core Honors with reference to the Core Honors Values. We will respond by email to schedule the conversation.

OR

b. Upload something you've made that demonstrates your engagement in the Core Honors Values. Some examples of relevant materials include a 1) a paper you've written for a course in school, or other relevant coursework; 2) a short video you've made; 3) an article or a story or poem you've written for a school or other publication. With your material or object, please include your full name and a brief (1 paragraph) explanation of how it engages the Core Honors Values, along with an introduction to what it is and why you made it, if you think we will need that. At the end of your explanation, please include a statement certifying that this item is your own work. If any of it was produced in collaboration with someone else, please explain the nature and extent of that collaboration.

OR

c. Upload, or copy and paste below, your answer to the following prompt: describe in detail, in about 400 words, something you've done or made that demonstrates your engagement in the Core Honors Values. At the end, please include a statement certifying that this submission is entirely your own work.

The deadline for applying to Core Honors is January 15, 2020.
