Faculty Awards

Dr. Jennifer Henery

Teaching Assistant Professor, Theology Department

Award Presented by Katharine Schwister, Peace Studies Major

Dr. Jennifer Henery is a Teaching Assistant Professor in the Department of Theology. An alumna, she earned her M.A. and Ph.D in Religious Studies from Marquette University. She also holds a B.A. in English Literature from Franklin College. After a decade as the Director of Spiritual Life and Character Development at a secondary boarding school, Dr. Henery returned to Marquette in 2018 where she has enjoyed engaging students in the exploration of theology and their formation in Ignatian Pedagogy. She is the inaugural recipient of the Marquette Core Curriculum Teaching Excellence Award in 2021.

Dr. Khadijah (Gigi) Makky
Clinical Professor, Biomedical Sciences Department
Award Presented by Amanda Pastrick, Biomedical Sciences Major

Dr. Khadijah (Gigi) Makky is a Clinical Professor in the Department of Biomedical Sciences. Her work focuses on teaching, mentoring, and directing the “Sterilizer Mentoring Service” lab. She is a past recipient of The Rev. John P. Raynor Faculty Award for Teaching Excellence and the College of Health Sciences’ Dorothy H. Wood Award that recognizes outstanding commitment and dedication to excellence in teaching. Dr. Makky loves her role as an educator and considers it a privilege and responsibility. After 12 years of teaching, her greatest reward comes when she sees the spark of student inspiration – a result of her philosophy of providing extensive opportunities for self-directed and well-earned success.
