

Honors Study-Abroad Awards for spring 2020

The University Honors Program will be awarding study-abroad awards of $1500 each to two Honors students on Marquette-approved study-abroad programs of at least 4 weeks' duration during spring semester 2020. Awards will be made based on the quality of the student's academic record and the significance of the study-abroad program to his or her curriculum and academic and professional goals.

To apply, please email to Amelia Zurcher name, college, major(s) and minor(s), year of graduation, study-abroad program (official OIE name), and 2-3 paragraphs answering the following questions: How does this study-abroad program fit into your program of study? How does it advance your academic and professional goals? The more concrete and specific you can be, the better – we want to know not only why study abroad in general is will be good for you, but why you have picked the program(s) you have and what you hope to get out of them and give to them.

The faculty review committee will also consider applicants' transcripts (Honors can supply these; you do not need to include them in your email). All emailed applications will be acknowledged; please inquire if you do not receive an acknowledgement within 48 hours. Applications are due by Tuesday, October 1, at the end of the day (the same day that study-abroad applications are due to OIE). Contact Amelia Zurcher with any questions.
