Work-Life Services offer comprehensive assistance for issues spanning the life cycle that impact you and your family members. A phone call to one of our work-life specialists provides consultation, assessment and customized referrals for your work-life concerns at no cost to you.

Work-Life Program Components

Childcare and parenting consultation and referral:
- Review of available childcare options
- Verified referrals to local providers
- Before- and after-school care, summer programs, sick care and more

Adoption consultation and referral:
- Information about adoption choices, costs and referrals to local adoption agencies

Educational resources: Kindergarten-12th grade and higher education
- Resources for the college planning process, career research, college and scholarship searches
- Searches for specialized and private schools, tutors and financial aid

Elder care and dependent adult care consultation and referral:
- Information about providers, programs, services and policies
- Verified referrals to local providers, including in-home care, community care, transportation and other support services

Pre-retirement information:
- Resources and referrals for retirement planning

How it works
- Unlimited telephone assessment and consultation for all components
- Online access available
- Verified referrals within one to three business days
- High level of confidentiality
- Personalized resource packet sent to caller
- Consumer information packet sent within one to three business days of the initial assessment