AFRICA COMES TO AMERICA
MON FEB 11 | 6PM TO 8PM
MARQUETTE UNIVERSITY AMU 157

A panel discussion moderated by Oby Nwabuzor, MBA will articulate insights into cultural, claim identity, and biases; explore issues of life purpose; meaning and faith through a cultural lens; articulate and scrutinize personal values and beliefs; and analyze similarities and differences among cultures. This dialogue is a unique opportunity for Marquette University students and community members to hear from natives on being Black in America, the struggles, the barriers, the strive for success, the root of culture and why we all are one.

To register: https://africa-comes-to-america-bhm-mu-2019.eventbrite.com