Holdings of Catholic-related records about Native Americans in the United States are unknown. However, it is believed that the Archdiocese of München und Freising holds the records of the Ludwigs Verein, 1831-1875, which gave financial assistance to Catholic missions in the United States, including those pertaining to American Indians.

See IN: M-11--/9 "Ludwigs, Verein"

Inclusive dates: 1831-1875

Volume: Less than 1 reel within 7 reels of microfilm

Description: The collection contains 5 reels of correspondence arranged by diocese and 2 reels of the Society's magazine, which routinely published letters of missionaries, most of which pertain to conditions at the missions and requests for funds. There is a calendar arranged by name.
