History: In 1921, the German Province divided into the Northern and Southern German Provinces with the Northern Province Archives retaining the records of the former German Province. The Jesuits had been ejected from Germany in 1872 and they relocated first to Buffalo, New York, and then the Netherlands. While based in Buffalo, the Buffalo Mission (Buffalo, New York) of the German Province administered the following Indian missions in the United States:

1884-1907 (transferred to Turin Province, Turin, Italy)	St. Stephen's Mission and School (Arapaho and Shoshoni), Wind River Reservation, Wyoming
1886-1907 (transferred to Turin Province, Turin, Italy)	St. Francis Mission and School (Brulé), Rosebud Reservation, South Dakota
1888-1907 (transferred to Turin Province, Turin, Italy)	Holy Rosary Mission and School (Oglala), Pine Ridge Reservation, South Dakota
