History: The Oblates of Mary Immaculate made their first Canadian foundation in 1841. They erected the Saint-Boniface Mission Vicariate (Sainte-Boniface, Manitoba) in 1851 for Canada west of the Great Lakes, the Saint-Albert Mission Vicariate (Sainte-Albert, Alberta) in 1865 for western Canada, and the Manitoba Province in 1904, which succeeded the Saint-Albert Vicariate. The Oblates of Mary Immaculate of the Manitoba Province and its predecessors administered the following Métis and Ojibwa Indian mission and parish in Pembina, North Dakota:

1861-ca. 1870s (no longer Indian) Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary
Church

1861-ca. 1870s (no longer Indian) St. Joseph Mission
