History of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe Archives

The Archives of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe began in 1933 and incorporated the previous Franciscan Archives of the Custody of the Conversion of St. Paul that had been kept at Santo Domingo de Guzmán Mission, Santo Domingo Pueblo, 1616-1933.

1680	During the Pueblo Revolt most records at Santo Domingo were destroyed
1694-1933	Occasional fires at various missions and parishes destroyed some records before they could be transferred to Santo Domingo
1886	Flooding of the Rio Grande destroyed some records at Santo Domingo
1933	Parishes transferred to the Archdiocesan Archives all loose and bound volumes of records that began prior to 1850. The Genealogical Society of Utah, Salt Lake City, Utah, and the Huntington Library, San Marino, California, microfilmed the sacramental records

History of Bosque Redondo Mission, Bosque Redondo, New Mexico

1872-1880	Diocesan priests from San Jose, Anton Chico attended Fort Sumner Mission/ Bosque Redondo Mission (Navajo), New Mexico
